

Dues include county and state membership. All dues should be paid at the county level and vary by county.

State dues are $7.00.

Your county should have a Cattlemen's Association chapter. If you are unsure about the status of a county chapter, contact the ACWA president via the online directory or call the Alabama Cattlemen's Association at (334)265-1867.

To become a member, tear off this portion of the brochure, complete the following information and mail to the address below. Checks may be made payable to ACWA.

Pat Fell, ACWA Treasurer
170 Honeysuckle Drive
Jasper, AL 35504

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

County: _____

If there isn't a chapter in your county, would you be interested in organizing one? Yes No

For more information:

Check us out on Facebook:

www.facebook.com/cowbelles53

See our webpage:

<http://bamabeef.org>

Click on "Partner organizations" and look for the "Alabama Cattlemen's Association"

Why You Should Become a Member of the ACWA

A voice for women in the cattle industry.

Alabama Cattlewomen's Association:

An Auxiliary to the Alabama Cattlemen's Association

The Purpose of the ACWA, as defined in it's Articles of Incorporation

“The purposes of this non-profit corporation are to serve as the women's auxiliary of the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and to conduct, and to participate in, activities which will assist the Alabama Cattlemen's Association in its endeavors to promote, develop, expand, and encourage the production of beef cattle in Alabama, as well as its efforts for the advancement and betterment of the interest and welfare of Alabama cattlemen and the cattle industry; to conduct and be responsible for the ladies' business and social activities at its annual meeting and on other occasions; and to do and perform any and all acts necessary and suitable, and proper for the accomplishment of the purposes for which it is organized.”

What We Do

- Market the Beef Cattle Industry in Alabama
- Promote the nutritional value of Lean Beef
- Lead Student and consumer education on beef cuisine
- Provide Scholarship funding to agriculture students

Why We Do It

The gap between consumers and agriculture continues to widen. Consumers continually have questions about where their food comes from and how beef is raised.

We bridge that gap by answering questions with our own personal stories.

We care about our animals and our land because it is our livelihood and what we will pass on as our legacy to future generations. We are dedicated to making sure that we leave the environment in better shape than it was when it came into our hands.

IT'S WHAT'S FOR DINNER.®

We genuinely care about getting the facts about the beef industry and agriculture as a whole out to consumers—that means that we share our personal stories with people who have questions about the industry. We strive to make sure that consumers know that to have a quality product means we must begin by providing quality care for our animals.

We work hard to keep our animals safe, secure and above all else, healthy.

We care about providing safe and nutritious beef information for consumers.